

CU-Prime Talks: Presented by CU-Prime

The CU-Prime Talk Series aims to accomplish the following goals:

- Showcase current physics-related research to the physics community in an accessible way
- Foster an inclusive community in the physics department through interaction and discussion throughout the talk
- Feature speakers with a wide variety of backgrounds, experiences, and research focuses
- Highlight the unique paths people take in becoming a physicist
- Provide students with experience in presenting research in a jargon-free way

We aim to align our actions with the CU-Prime Mission Statement. Visit us at cuprime.org!
